Hosted by the Research Institute of Korean Studies at Korea University

Sponsored by the Pony Chung Foundation

The Inaugural PONY CHUNG Senior Fellowsip

for Korean Studies Scholars

1. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

With support from the Pony Chung Foundation, Korea University's Research Institute of Korean Studies (RIKS) established the 'Pony Chung Senior Fellowship' for experienced Korean Studies Scholars temporarily. While 'Pony Chung Fellowship' is a long-term stay program for young Korean Studies researchers who recently received a doctorate, 'Pony Chung Senior Fellowship' offers faculty members in the Korean Studies the opportunity to undertake up to 3 months of study and research at RIKS. The goal of this program is to provide experienced researchers in the field of Korean Studies with a platform on which they can share ideas and research outcomes with others in the field. Through this program, scholars are able to develop their topics and further expand their research, thereby contributing to the overall development and globalization of Korean Studies. Prospective participants are invited to submit their applications.
